Staff Guest Columnist, Dana McKenna, Director of Youth Faith Formation

Dear Friends,

This past weekend, 55 of our 111 8th grade students – or Confirmandi - celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation. As the candidates were entering the church with their families, wearing their masks and sanitizing their hands, I could not help but think about one year ago when we celebrated the Sacrament. It was the week before the shut down due to the pandemic. This year, watching the families as they entered the church, you could feel their excitement and knew that, under the masks, were the grateful smiles for being in church and celebrating with our young people. As I sat in the back of church and watched the families, I had such a feeling of gratitude.

First, I am so grateful for the young people confirmed last weekend and those that will be confirmed in May. They all have been present for their classes, Zoom retreat, interviews, service hours, and communicating with their sponsors. I was fortunate to have had the opportunity to interview a number of the students and listen to why they chose their saint's name or who they selected to be their sponsor. I was so impressed with the stories they shared about the saints and the things they have learned by doing their service hours during a pandemic.

One student shared with me how happy he/she felt helping at the car Mass, learning how important it was and how grateful people were to be at Mass. It made all who helped look at attending Mass with a greater appreciation and made them proud to be able to assist at church. Others talked about doing research and selecting a saint name. I enjoyed not only reading about why they chose their saints but learning about the lives of the saints they chose. To say that I was inspired by our Confirmandi is an understatement; they truly are a blessing to the Church and have been touched by the Holy Spirit.

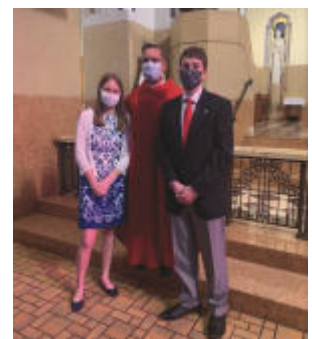

Second, I am so grateful to the catechists and parents for the support and encouragement they have given the students as they have been preparing to receive the Sacrament. Each catechist was asked to adjust the way they teach but continued to make sure the students were receiving a faith-filled experience, guiding them to understand the importance of attending Mass and to realize that Confirmation isn't the end, it's just the beginning. The students have been taught that they should pray often to the Holy Spirit for guidance. As Father Wayne mentioned in his homily, "you need the church and the church needs you."

Finally, I am so grateful to the parish staff. We have a wonderful team that works together and supports each other in creating beautiful liturgies for our families to enjoy. John and Jonathan enhanced our liturgies with such beautiful music, Mr. Berger made sure the sacristans were prepared for each liturgy, and Rachelle Leech jumped in last minute for one additional Confirmation certificate. I am grateful to Dani Froelich for her attention to detail and her collaboration for the program. And I'm grateful for the "behind the scenes" staff, Ann Hrabe and Mary Kay Gorman, our team of COVID volunteers, and especially for Father Wayne and his continuous reminder that nothing is impossible with the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

We have so much for which to be thankful and so many blessings to count.

Dana McKenna
