

Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier Parish

Our Mission:

We honor the traditions of our parish and welcome all to unite in prayer and the Sacraments. Loved by God and guided by the Holy Spirit, we share the good news of Jesus Christ through joyful worship, faithful formation and dedicated service.

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

Dear Friends,

The humanness, the wisdom, the candor and the accuracy of the Psalmist have always struck me. If you ever have time to pick up the Bible, I suggest praying with the Psalms. Songs of praise and thanks, and sorrow and petition, the Psalms echo the feelings of the human heart. Today's Psalm reminds us of God's beneficence and providence. The readings and Gospel that accompany it challenge us to put our trust in the Lord's goodness and to live our lives as true disciples.

"The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs." We sing that refrain five times between the first and second reading today. Do we really believe what we are singing? Do we really trust in the providence of God? If we do, and when we do, we can live more joyful, generous lives. When we allow fear and uncertainty to rule, we hold tightly to what we have and hesitate to let go and share.

I often think of the prayer my mother said daily when she was ill. It helped her to put her trust in the providence of God. She told us a thousand times as we were growing up, and she needed to put her faith in it in a special way during her illness: "GOD PROVIDES!" The prayer is really a reminder from Saint Francis De Sales. I have shared it with you before, but it bears sharing again.

*Do not look forward to what might happen tomorrow...
The same everlasting Father who cares for you today
Will take care of you tomorrow and every day.*

*Either He will shield you from suffering
Or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it.
Be at peace then and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginings.*

When we rid ourselves of anxiety, when we really do not allow anything to weigh us down with worry, we live more liberated lives. We become free. When we are free we can live more generously, sharing what we have with those who need it.

In the sharing bread stories we have in the first reading and Gospel, fear might have entered in. When the man brought bread to Elisha and Phillip counted the loaves the young boy possessed, both doubted and were certainly untrusting of the promise and providence of God. They needed a little encouragement. Elisha told the man and Jesus encouraged Phillip and subtly reminded him that God was (and is) in charge. "Give it to the people to eat." "Have the people recline." They both did, albeit reluctantly, and both were amazed that when they shared what they had, God would make it enough.

The boy in the Gospel could have done many things when Phillip approached him for his bread and fish. He could have agreed with Phillip and the others about the impracticality of sharing so little with so many and refused to share the little he had. He could have offered one or two loaves and kept the rest for his family. He didn't. He gave all that he had, and God made it enough. I think we sometimes might have thoughts of holding back, of not giving our time, talent, and treasure to the extent that we really can. The boy gives us a great model. He gave, without considering the cost. With his generous, fearless help, the hand of the Lord fed the crowd. When we give generously and fearlessly of ourselves, God will do the same.

Humility and generosity make this happen. When we let go of our selfish agendas, and whatever euphemisms we use for them, and truly empty ourselves and abandon ourselves to the will of God, we can be generous of spirit -- and in life. When we get stuck in selfishness and fear, when we allow willfulness to rule, it is then that we are unable to cooperate with God's loving plan. This is more than a philosophy. It can be practiced daily and in the life of the parish and the Church. We need to be concerned with the good of ALL, not a particular group within the parish or within the Church Universal.

Finally, let's allow the words of Saint Paul to impel our actions this week. "I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace." We can ask ourselves "Am I humble?" "Am I gentle?" "Am I patient?" "Am I loving?" "Am I peaceful?" Hopefully, we can answer all these questions with a resounding YES!

Peace,

PS Speaking of giving generously and fearlessly, we have begun a new fiscal year. I hope you have considered your stewardship to this great parish. The expenses have increased with cost of living and other expenditures. Please consider increasing your online contributions to our parish. You can adjust your weekly or monthly giving at www.givecentral.org.

Registration is open for 2021 - 2022 YFF classes

We are happy to announce that per Archdiocese direction, all Youth Formation Classes (YFF) will meet in person for the upcoming school year.

Registration is underway for the YFF at Saints JFX. This year you will notice that you have some different options for class selection when registering your children. Classes will continue to be offered at both campuses on Sunday mornings, but you also will have an opportunity to register your children who are in grades 1 through 6 on Tuesdays after school. As our program continues to grow, we are looking for ways to best meet the needs of our parish families.

Please do not hesitate to contact one of our Directors of Youth Faith Formation if you have questions or would like additional information:

Dani Froelich (dfroelich@ssjfx.org)
 Director of non-Sacrament classes

Dana McKenna (dmckenna@ssjfx.org)
 Director of Sacrament classes.

To register, please visit www.ssjfx.org/for-youth.html

Come one, come all to the St. Vincent de Paul, Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier Conference Donation Drive! Drivers can pull into the St. Joseph Church parking lot from Lake Avenue and our volunteers will take donations and put them into trucks. Please bring bags or boxes of clothing and household goods such as pots and pans, plates, glasses, silverware and small appliances like toasters and blenders. (Sorry, we will not be able to accept furniture at this event.)

Clean out your closets, basements and garages! Help us to help others!
