The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is dedicated to helping the poor and others who have fallen upon difficult times. If you or someone you know is in need of help, please call the parish office at 847/256-4250 and ask for extension 44. If you are calling outside of business hours, press 3 to leave a message, and we will return your call as soon as possible. All inquiries are treated in confidence.

"In Service of Others" is a ministry that is part of the Women's Club. The purpose is to help parishioners with temporary needs such as picking up items at grocery stores, pharmacies, or local stores, running errands, bringing meals, providing rides to doctors' appointments, or Sunday Mass.

If you require short-term help for these basic needs, please call the SFX parish office at 847-256-4250 and give the information to the office. This information will be given to the chairs of this ministry, and someone will respond to you directly.

This ministry is open to all parishioners – we need many volunteers for this to work for us all. If you are interested in helping, please contact us at ssjfxwomensclub@gmail.com.

Dear Friends,

Pope Francis' recent words to the leaders of Russia and Ukraine echo Saint Paul's words to the Corinthians. "We implore you, on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God."

Last Sunday, at the Angelus, the Pope said, "This week again missiles and bombs have fallen on civilians, the elderly, children, and pregnant mothers. I went to see the wounded children who are here in Rome. One was missing an arm; one had a head injury...innocent children. I think of the millions of Ukrainian refugees who must flee leaving everything behind, and I feel a great pain for those who do not even have the possibility to escape. So many grandparents, sick and poor people separated from their own families, so many children and fragile people are left to die under the bombs without being able to receive help and find safety even in the air raid shelters. All this is inhuman! Indeed, it is also sacrilegious because it goes against the sacredness of human life, especially against defenseless human life, which must be respected and protected, not eliminated, and this comes before any strategy."

Pope Francis also invited all people of good will to join him in the consecration of the world to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. At the end of the Angelus, the Pope said, "I invite every community and all the faithful to unite with me on Friday 25 March, the Solemnity of the Annunciation, for the Solemn Act of Consecration of humanity, especially Russia and Ukraine, to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, so that she, the Queen of Peace, may help us obtain peace." We joined him in that consecration on Friday.

As we consecrate the world to the Queen of Peace, we must realize that peace begins with us. Peace requires regular reconciliation and a commitment to love. Love means recognizing our own imperfections, admitting our faults, trying to change, and indeed saying we are sorry. Love means letting go of hurts and grudges, and allowing ourselves to be reconciled. Love means realizing that we are all children of God, made in God's image, and are called to love one another. Love means saying we're sorry, truly meaning it, and forgiving one another.

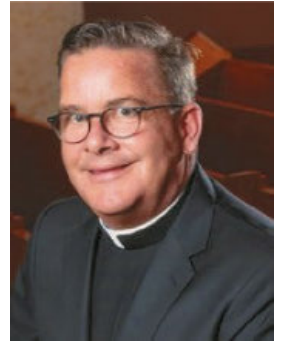

Love is made manifest in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The Sacrament plays out, in real life, the drama exhibited in the story presented in today's Gospel. Love possessed the father to give the son more than he deserved, before he deserved it. When the son basically said to his father "you're dead to me. Give me my inheritance..." unconditional love impelled the father to give the son what he asked for.

Love prompted the father to wait, watching for the son to return. "While he was still a long way off," suggests that things were different in the father's house while the son was away. Things weren't business as usual. The son's absence disrupted the household. The father's love for the son had him longing for the son's return. So, he waited and watched. That is exactly what God does with us. God so loves us and wants us to be close. God, through the death and resurrection of His Son, has reconciled the world to Himself and sent the Holy Spirit to us for the forgiveness of sins.

In the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we invite our brothers and sisters to come home. We celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation as the father celebrated the son's return. Maybe you can invite someone who is away from God or the Church to come home this Lent. We celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation at 9:00 am on Saturdays at Saint Joseph Church. We will also have a special service on Tuesday April 5, at 6:00 pm. Join us, please.

Returning now to the small "r," and considering the season of Lent, I invite you to join me this week in imitating the father in the famous Prodigal Son story. Reach out to someone who has hurt you. Be quick to be the first to forgive. Let go of past hurts. Allow love, rather than resentment, to rule your hearts, to prompt your words, and to direct your actions. We all have people we need to forgive, for little things and big things. Lent is a perfect time to work on reconciliation with the small "r."

Peace,
