Dear Friends,

We prayerfully remember the tragic events of September 11, 2001, and pray for a lasting peace in our world.

Today, Jesus invites us to consider the story of the prodigal son. I think God calls us to consider more than the prodigal son; he invites us to reflect on the attitudes of all three characters in the story, the father, the son, and his brother who stayed home. Remember, Jesus uses parables to help us understand his mission and God's love.

The younger son reminds us of the need for self-reflection, conversion, and the need to return to God. The older brother, steadfast in loyalty, but equally strong in judgmental attitudes and resentment, allows the father (who comes out of the party just like he ran out of the house to greet the prodigal) to instruct him and us. We must rejoice at the return of a sinner, refraining from harsh judgment and resentment. The father demonstrates the undeserved and freely given mercy of God. To which character do you feel drawn? Whose words and actions resonate with you?

RCIA... Four letters that mean WELCOME! So many times, we have mentioned that all are welcome at Saints JFX. Word for word, RCIA signifies Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. Recently, the name has changed to the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults, or OCIA. Practically speaking, the OCIA program allows people of all faiths to come together to learn a bit more about the Catholic Church, its traditions and customs, their own spiritual paths, and God's love.

As they walk the road of OCIA, some decide to join our community and will be fully welcomed, fully initiated at the Easter Vigil in April. I wholeheartedly invite you to join us. A great team met last week and is coordinating the efforts here. Reach out to me at wwatts@ssjfx.org if you are interested. We will begin in October. At Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier, we hope many will walk the path of OCIA. Maybe you have questions, as so many do, about the spiritual life in general, or the Catholic Church specifically. Here are some questions I have heard people ask, that I hope we can discuss, among other things, at some of our OCIA gatherings.

Why is there so much suffering in the world?
 What is the Trinity?
 How can I explain my faith/beliefs to others?
 What does it mean to be Catholic?
 What's the difference between the Catholic Church and other Churches?
 What are the Sacraments and why does the Catholic Church have seven?
 What do we mean when we talk about the Liturgical Seasons?
 Why do Catholics do what they do at Mass?
 What is the organization and structure of the Catholic Church?

What is the role of nuns in the Church? What about other women?

What does the Catholic Church really teach about Mary and the Saints?

What does one have to believe as a Catholic?

What happened at Vatican II?

Why do Catholics pray the Rosary?

How does the Catholic Church relate to other faiths?

These and so many other topics can be discussed along the OCIA journey. So, if you know people who you think might benefit from a program like this, invite them. All are Welcome at Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier! Shout it from the rooftops!

We welcome, too, the children. It is the moral duty of all Catholic parents to bring their children up in the practice of the faith. Youth Faith Formation begins next week. ALL CHILDREN OF CATECHETICAL AGE (5 through 15) SHOULD PARTICIPATE IN FORMAL RELIGIOUS EDUCATION. YFF is not just a sacramental preparation program. Please register your children in Religious Education if they do not attend a Catholic school. And please bring your children to Mass! Jesus said, "Let the Children come to me and do not hinder them." They learn from our words... and our actions. Contact Dana McKenna at dmckenna@ssjfx.org or Dani Froelich at dfroelich@ssjfx.org for more information.

Finally, ACTION begins with 7:30 Mass at Saint Francis Church tonight (Sunday September 11). Noreen Russo and Father Ryan have come up with a fantastic, engaging program for our high school age teens. With its nearly 50 year history, ACTION allows our highschoolers to come together in faith, friendship, and service. It provides a wonderful venue for our teens to stay connected to each other and the Church during the often-challenging teenage years. Please encourage your teens to join. They will not be disappointed. Contact Noreen Russo at nrusso@ssjfx.org for more information.

Peace,

From the Loft

As we resume our choir schedule, we invite you to join the Combined Adult Choir ("The Parish Choir"). This large ensemble is a unified adult choir with members from both campuses of Saints JFX. This choir sings weekly at either St. Joseph or SFX. This week the choir sings at SJ at 10:30am Mass; next week the choir sings at SFX at 9:30am Mass.

The Combined Adult Choir is a soprano, alto, tenor, bass mixed ensemble that provides music every Sunday from September through May. The Adult Choir sings a broad range of repertoire including chant, western classical, Gospel and contemporary sacred music. While having previous musical training is a plus, all voice types and abilities are welcome to join. Rehearsals are held one hour before Mass; weeknight rehearsals are not required.

The 2nd Annual Saints JFX Ministry Fair will be held on Sunday September 25, immediately following the 10:30am Mass at St. Joseph Church. The Fair will be held in the green space between the church and the annex. Donuts and coffee will be provided. Come learn about all the ministries at Saints JFX. We'll have representatives from several of our ministries including the Women's Club, Choir, Sharing Parish, Lectors, Stewardship, Welcoming Committee and more. Stop by on September 25 and sign up!

Children's liturgy of the word (CLOW) is looking for volunteers!!

CLOW, is a special ministry offered to children ages 5 through 9 at Saints JFX, 9:30 at SFX and 10:30 at St Joe's. This important opportunity allows our younger parishioners to experience the mass in a meaningful way at their own level.

Teaching this important ministry is rewarding and simple. We invite you to come with the children one Sunday to see how it works! You do not need to be a teacher to lead these sessions. There is a workbook with "instructions" on how to lead the sessions each week. You do not need to prepare special materials, flyers or handouts.

Please e-mail Diane Clarke at thehunty@yahoo.com or Jane Daley at daley.jane@gmail.com if you are interested in joining the CLOW program.
