A vibrant stained glass artwork of a dove, symbolizing the Holy Spirit. The dove is depicted in a circular frame, with its wings spread. The colors are a mix of bright yellows, oranges, reds, and blues, set against a background of colorful, abstract patterns. The dove's body is a mix of yellow and white, and its wings are a mix of blue and purple. The background is a complex pattern of various colors, including blue, purple, pink, and yellow, creating a rich, multi-colored effect.

Dear Friends,

Happy Mother's Day!

In our second reading today, Saint Peter exhorts us to always be ready to give a reason for our hope. Remember, this is the same Peter who, after saying he would lay down his life for Jesus, denied him three times. He received the promised Holy Spirit and then had the courage and enthusiasm to exhort the people. God's providential gift of the Holy Spirit filled his heart and prompted him to speak.

We live in a troubled world. Our national and international politics frighten calm spirits. We fret about our national security and violence on the streets of Chicago. We worry about immigration policies and the asylum seekers at our doors. Yet, I remain hopeful. I still believe that good wins. That's what Easter is about. And we are Easter people. We had big crowds on Easter Sunday. People looking for a reason to hope filled our pews and we sang alleluia to our Risen Lord. We joyfully celebrated love's victory.

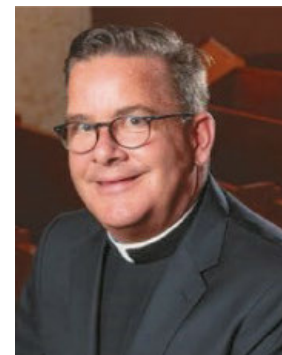

All the while, during these weeks of Easter, the crowds at Mass thinned and more victims of violence suffered in our city. I remain, through it all, hopeful. I hope you do too. Today's Scriptures give us ways to be hopeful; as does a quote I found this week, written by a humble monastic priest, Father Solanus Casey, who was beatified almost six years ago in Detroit. Let's start with Blessed Solanus.

When we get worried or upset about the world around us or about our own uncertain future, Solanus tells us, "Worry is a weakness from which very few of us are entirely free. We must be on guard against this most insidious enemy of our peace of soul. Instead, let us foster confidence in God, and thank Him ahead of time for whatever He chooses to send us."

When we look at all that troubles our world, it would be easy to worry. Blessed Solanus tells us not to worry but to foster confidence in God. When we place our confidence, our real trust, in political parties, power, money, or anything else rather than God, we possess false hope. God, omniscient, omnipresent, omnipotent, ever-faithful, and always provident, deserves our trust, reliance and - as Blessed Solanus reminds us - gratitude.

Jesus tells the disciples as he prepares for his departure that he will not leave them - or us - orphans. This continues a promise made by God to God's people centuries ago. I think of the words of an eighties church song by Carey Landry, inspired by Isaiah 49. These words help me during challenging times. "I will never forget you, my people. I have formed you from the palm of my hands. I will never forget you; I will not leave you orphans. I will never forget my own."

God does not forget us. Jesus guarantees that, by his coming, by his teaching, by his healing and curing, by his suffering and dying, by his rising from the dead, and most especially by his reminding his followers to expect the Holy Spirit.

Jesus said to his disciples, and the words ring true for us today, "And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you." Jesus has asked and continues to ask, and the Holy Spirit still comes and is with us always. Rely on the Spirit. Be led by the Spirit. And great things will continue to happen!

God, in his providence, gave us our mothers. I am sure you carry lessons learned from your mothers. I thank God for mine - and the message of faith and love she shared with my brothers and sisters and me. As we enjoy the beautiful colors and warmer temperatures of spring, and continue the celebration of the Easter Season we, stop for a moment to remember and to honor our mothers, and those who have been mother figures to us throughout our life.

Peace,

PS I hope you were able to make a generous donation Catholic Charities Mother's Day Collection today. If not, you can also donate online at www.catholiccharities.net. We have a great partnership with this great agency. We help Catholic Charities, and Catholic Charities helps so many of us.

Saints JFX Women's Club Scholarship Results 2023

Congratulations to this year's winners: Anna Semple, First Place; James Phillips, and Duke McGinn, Runners Up, and to all the students who submitted applications and essays to the Saints JFX Women's Club Scholarship Committee.

We were impressed by the extensive accomplishments, activities, and school/community involvement of all the participating eighth grade students. Most notable were the thoughtful essays describing personal insights and growth through acts of encouragement and support. Selecting the winners was challenging, and our only disappointment was that we could not award scholarships to all the participants! It is reassuring to know what outstanding students we have in our parish community. We wish them success in their high school years; we are confident that they will make Saints JFX Parish proud!

The Scholarship Committee

Saints JFX Men's Club Morning of Reflection "Faith & Masculinity"

Why attend a morning of reflection? The opportunity to reconnect with life.

For most of us, the pace of daily life is hectic. We're always on the go, there isn't much time to think about the things that are truly important. A morning of reflection offers the solitude to step away – to take time to reflect, refresh, and renew. During this time, you may even discover the inner strength to help with the challenges in your path.

If you're thinking, "a retreat is not for me," think again! A morning of reflection is for everyone – husbands on the go, men with children, career focused men, empty-nesters, men who are single, divorced or widowed.

Maybe you're saying, "I can't afford to give up an entire weekend!" We intentionally created this morning of reflection to be short, to provide the opportunity to dip your toes in the water. An early start and early finish so that you have the rest of your weekend to fulfill your commitments (shuttle the kids to sports) and spend time with your family.

Women of the parish, please encourage your husbands to consider their attendance. Thank you for your prayers, encouragement, and support.

Itinerary:

The Invest in Kids Tax Credit Scholarship Program is a proven success with bipartisan voter support. The TCS Program's pilot window will sunset by the end of 2023, unless legislators reauthorize the program. Thousands of families rely on tax credit scholarships to help their kids access their best-fit schools. Without the program sunset being removed, kids and families will face perpetual uncertainty or be unable to attend their best-fit school.

Empower Illinois and the broad and diverse coalition that make up the TCS Community are in Springfield right now telling lawmakers how tax credit scholarships provide hope for families and transform students' lives. This is our next best opportunity to remove the impending sunset on the Tax Credit Scholarship (TCS) Program.

Please help! Here are a few things you can do to support the effort to #RemovetheSunset:

Contact your legislator. You can use the following link to write an email or place a call: <https://p2a.co/gmqrehi>

Make a tax credit scholarship donation. Your contribution to this program helps demonstrate its success by creating more scholarships for kids in need, and earns you a 75% state tax credit. You can use the following link to donate: <https://empowerillinois.org/donate/make-my-tax-credit-scholarship-donation/>

Help schools and families visit Springfield. Empower Illinois is proud to amplify family and school voices, and we would appreciate your support to continue this vital work. You can use the following link to make a donation: <https://eil.networkforgood.com/projects/188960-remove-the-sunset>. While your charitable contribution to our advocacy efforts does not qualify for a state tax credit, it may be eligible for a federal deduction.

If you'd like links emailed to you, please contact the parish office at 847-256-4250. Thank you!
