Dear Friends,

Great things are happening at Saints JFX. It's hard to believe we are back in the swing of school for another academic year. The start of school at our parish school brought joy and tears to the parents. We hosted two back to school coffees on our respective campuses, that together house, welcome, educate, and form in the faith over 700 students.

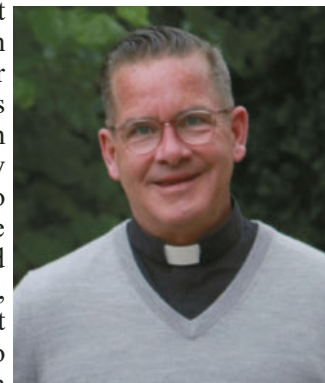

People are actively registering for the new Family of Faith program, a program designed to allow parents and children more flexibility and participation in the life of the faith, and to build strong community (through regular social and educational gatherings and a family focused Mass) within and among all parents of school age children, and among the children themselves. The meet and greet event at 4:45 Mass (with a light dinner following) on September 24th promises to be exciting and informative. Watch for details and plan to come, whether you have kids in the public school or parish school. All are welcome.

The Lakota Group, guiding us through the One Plan, our campus master plan process, is prepping and planning for two town hall meetings, where they will listen to any interested voices, and present preliminary ideas for the best use of the parish's many capital resources, from Ridge and Lake to 8th and Linden. They will present the findings of the dozen or so listening sessions they held in the spring and offer some ideas to move forward. The two dates in September for these very important meetings are Tuesday evenings 6:30-8:30 September 19th (at the saint Joseph Campus) and 26th (at the Saint Francis campus). As I have said often, this is YOUR parish, and the One Plan will create our legacy, paying things forward and preparing for a vibrant future for our parish. Before any plans are made to move forward, I want to hear from you. September 19th and 26th will give you the opportunity to share your thoughts about the future of Saints JFX, our needs and your hopes.

In today's Gospel Jesus starts with an easy question and then moves to a more challenging one. First, he asks, "Who do the people say that The Son of Man is?" The disciples easily respond with what the people are saying about him. Pointedly, then, Jesus turns the question on the disciples and on you and me. "Who do you say that I am?"

Our answer to his personal question should determine the way we live. Peter says, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Although Peter often demonstrates his imperfect humanness, he shows us in Sacred Scripture his desire to please Jesus with his life. We can demonstrate our desire to please too.

Who is Jesus to you? What difference does his life, death and resurrection make in your life, in the way you live? Jesus is my friend, my companion on the journey, my model of mercy and of love. That's who he is to me. So I turn to him to show me the way to live mercifully and charitably. I, like Peter, demonstrate my own imperfect humanness, but I desire to please him and follow him with my life. I invite you today to answer Jesus' question and allow your life to reflect your response.

Today's Collect of the Mass, the opening prayer, sums up my hope for Saints JFX this school year.

O God, who cause the minds of the faithful to unite in a single purpose, grant your people to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, amid the uncertainties of this world, our hearts may be fixed on that place where true gladness is found. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

My prayer is that as we enter our fifth year as ONE unified parish, each of us will commit to looking forward with hope, rather than backward with unfounded longing. We are Saints JFX! Let's unite in a single purpose, fixing our hearts on true gladness.

Peace,

If you read this bulletin early, know that ALL adults in the parish are invited to the Back to School Bash. This event promotes community among and within the whole parish, no matter where your children go to school. So don't be misled. Saturday's party in the Saint Joseph lot welcomes all.
