Dear Friends,

We gather this weekend to prepare the way of the Lord, to make straight his paths and to thank God for his mercy and love. The prayers of the Mass and the Scripture readings invite urgency.

As we enter the month of December we do so with the experience of darkness. For many of us, darkness greets us as we awake, and meets us as we leave our places of work in the early evening. If you're like me, you long for the light. Before we know it, the days will be getting longer and the dark nights shorter. And in two weeks we will have both the Fourth Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve on the same day. Advent flies by.

Warmth and light. With my whole heart, I believe that is what the Christ Child brings to each of us if we open our hearts to that warmth and light of his love. This week's scripture passages clearly instruct us in the ways to let that warmth and light into our lives. Prepare, a word that really sums up Advent, rings loudly in our readings for this second Sunday of Advent. So, how will we prepare? What will we do to get ready for the coming of the Christ child into our hearts and into our lives?

Some words from today's Old Testament selection hit me: comfort, prepare, speak tenderly, and cry out. From the Gospel I hear a call by the Baptist to conversion, and I see in him a model of humility. Peter exhorts us to be found without blemish as we wait.

How can we be found without blemish on the day of the Lord's coming? I think we need to live like Jesus is coming soon. At the end of each day, or at its beginning, we ought to ask ourselves if we are prepared to meet the Lord. We should humbly, as John did, recognize Jesus' greatness and our smallness (One greater than I is coming after me... I am not worthy...). So often people in our society spend their energies in self-promotion and in hiding weakness and faults.

When we recognize the greatness of Jesus and admit our own weakness and sin, this time of preparation, this Advent season, will bear fruit. When we allow ourselves to be drawn into the warmth and light of Christ, our lives will be changed. The next two weeks offer us of opportunities to walk towards the light of Christ.

Saint Peter tells us, "We await a new heaven and a new earth."

He tells us that we should live in holiness as we wait so that when the new heavens and new earth happen we will be found without blemish before him, at peace.

On Tuesday, December 12, the parish will come together to seek peace and God's mercy in our communal celebration of Reconciliation. Six priests will be available for individual Sacramental Reconciliation. I cannot encourage you enough.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is the best way for us to prepare for the coming of Christ. It is a wonderful way to allow the warmth and light of Christ's love to melt our sin away and lead us to the Father. We are all spotted by sin. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will help us as we prepare to be found without blemish and at peace. Make the celebration of the Sacrament, either at the parish communal celebration or on your own schedule, part of your Advent preparing.

Amidst the busyness, prepare for his coming in silence, reflection, and prayer. Get ready by humbly approaching the Lord in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. When we do prepare, we will be able to comfort others and cry out about Christ's love. We will see God's kindness and experience God's saving power.

Peace,

PS. If you haven't already, soon you will receive a letter from me asking for a sacrificial year-end gift. A few years ago, I saw a suggestion on social media (sometimes - rarely - there is positivity on social media). I read a tweet (it was still twitter then!) "Right now if each of us, who is comfortably employed, gave an extra 1% of our income to the non-profits who are caring for our neighbors in need, we could have a huge impact." I am going to respond to that challenge. I plan to give half to Catholic Charities and half of that one percent to Saints JFX. Consider how you will respond to the call to comfort God's people.

December 2023

Dear Friends in Christ,

On the Third Sunday of Advent, our parishes will be conducting the Retirement Fund for Religious collection, an annual appeal that benefits nearly 25,000 elderly sisters, brothers, and religious order priests nationwide.

I am grateful for the significant influence that women and men religious, both past and present, have had on my own spiritual journey. I deeply appreciate their invaluable contributions to our diocese and the wider community. Perhaps you too have been touched by the kindness and guidance of an older religious who made a positive difference in your life.

We are called to recognize that many of our senior vowed religious have dedicated their lives to service, usually receiving little pay in return. Consequently, their religious communities face a shortage of retirement savings. Compounding this challenge are rising health-care costs and decreased income. Religious communities find it increasingly difficult to meet the day-to-day needs of aging members, including their medical expenses, nursing assistance and other necessities.

Your generous donations to the Retirement Fund for Religious provide vital financial support, enabling religious communities to care for their aging members.

I know you are frequently asked to support many worthy causes. I invite you to contribute what you can at masses the weekend of December 9-10. Most importantly, please keep all our men and women religious in your prayers. Rest assured that they are praying for you.

May God's abundant blessings be upon you and your loved ones during this Holy Season of Advent. With kind regards I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Celebrate Our Lady of Guadalupe, December 12

Do you know that Our Lady of Guadalupe is the Patroness of the Americas? In 1531, the Blessed Mother appeared four times to St. Juan Diego asking for a church to be built in her honor. The last time she appeared to St. Juan, on December 12th, 1531, she arranged roses in his tilma, which he then took to the bishop. When he opened his cloak, the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe was miraculously present on the tilma. This image is perfectly intact and kept in the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City. The symbols on her image represent an amazing spectrum of miraculous signs and meanings. Countless miracles have been attributed to this incredible devotion to the Mother of God.

We therefore celebrate the feast day of Our Lady under the title of Guadalupe on December 12th. It is preceded on December 9th by the feast of St. Juan Diego, who was canonized in 2002 by Pope St. John Paul II.
