Dear Friends,

There is a well-worn saying, "Singing is like praying twice". And we sing often at restaurants, ballgames, and even at concerts. (In the early 70's, I played piano at a club called "The Red Garter", which was packed with patrons singing many familiar songs). But when we enter the church on Sunday for Mass, we become quite shy and soft. It's been 50 years since Vatican II encouraged us all to participate fully in the Mass, yet for many of us, we still feel awkward when asked to sing.

During my childhood days in Wilmette, I attended St. Francis Xavier School, and in sixth grade the music teacher, Sister Marion Celeste, decided that I should learn to play the pipe organ. So began a lifetime learning of sacred music. At the time, daily Mass at St. Francis was celebrated by the priest who sang in Latin, and the organist sang the responses back, also in Latin. I actually began my music career at St. Francis while a junior in high school, playing daily Mass and singing back the responses to the priest, Fr. Myles McDonald.

Since the 1960's, there have been many revisions and publications of hymnbooks, all containing a mixture of old standards as well as newly composed contemporary songs. I could list dozens of songs as "favorites", but to this day, I continue to look for ways to make the songs as familiar as possible with the hope that others in the congregation will join in and sing along. Our psalms often have a contemporary setting, and as I choose hymns every week, I try to tie in the chosen songs with the readings for the day.

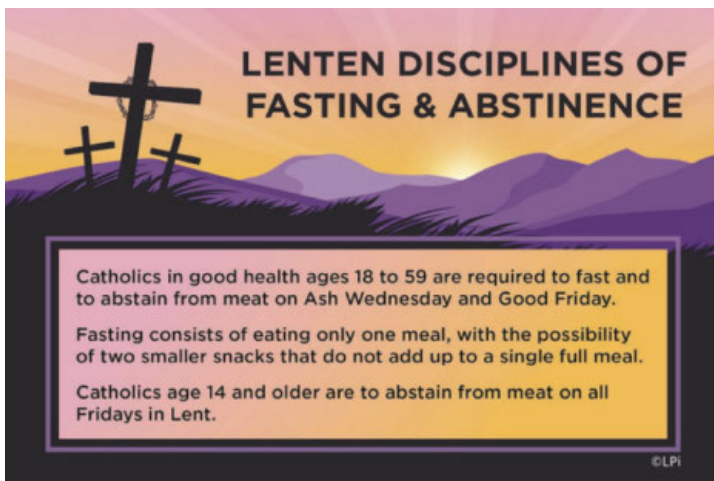

Each week, we try to offer a variety of music. The opening hymn is often more traditional, while the Offertory and Closing hymns are more contemporary. When the parish choir sings at St. Joseph, there is a strong nod to Gospel music, and the Mass of Glory is a modern gospel setting for the parts of the Mass.

As we move into the Lenten season, the music will become quieter and more meditative. A few of the songs and mass parts will have Latin influence. We sing the penitential rite instead of the Gloria. It is a time of preparation and renewal as we look ahead to the bright light of Easter and the Resurrection.

"Lift Every Voice and Sing" are the words to a well known hymn. Take a deep breath and give it a try. It will make you feel invigorated and happy inside! It's good for the soul!

Peace,

John Hopkins

MINISTRY OF CARE MANDATION February 18, 2024

In January and February ten men and women of our parish undertook the training required to become Ministers of Care. Today they will be mandated for this ministry at the 9:30am Mass at St. Francis Xavier Church.

Congratulations to

Peter Alonzi
Anna Marie Close
Mary Franklin
Kara Gillespie

Jay Harron
Tim Horton
Loretta Jacobs
John Rademacher
Sheli Sullivan

The parish is grateful to you for bringing our love and care along with the Holy Eucharist to the sick and the homebound who cannot join us at Mass.

“It was an Amazing Sight to See!”

This was a comment from a donor who lives an hour away from our parish. THANKS to the over 400 donors who came to the Saints JFX Blood Drive on Sunday to honor Kevin Joseph Smith Burke. Despite some long wait times 371 units of blood were collected, which is slightly more than the number of boxes our own Girl Scout troop sold at the drive. Our parish certainly “lights the way” again.

From the Red Cross: “This is definitely our largest one-day blood drive in the Archdiocese of Chicago – it’s our largest religious sector drive. What happened Sunday is truly something we don’t see everyday”

Special thanks to our sponsors: Ballyhoo Hospitality, Cycle Bar Wilmette, Dan Marguerite and Backyard BBQ, North Shore Community Bank and Valley Lodge.

Congratulations to the winning donors in the Super Bowl contest: George Weschler, Sheli Sullivan, Dave Dieffenbacher, James Allen, Esteban Saenz, Janet Avery, Ellen Weisbard, Addie Bacon and Renee Lburic. Yes, having 3 and 0 were very lucky numbers for this year’s big game.

Thank You to the hundreds of people who made this day so special.
