Dear Friends,

We've arrived again, at the pinnacle of our Church year. Starting today, Palm Sunday, we enter with Jesus into the most prayerful, most meaningful, most exciting time of the year. This week helps everything in our Christian lives make a little more sense. We commemorate the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus because we need to be reminded, amid everything else that is happening in our world, that humble obedience and submission to the will of God leads to victory. We need to be reminded that the suffering of Jesus gives us life. God's deliverance comes to us from God, not from our feeble attempts at piety.

When I was a child, my parents encouraged us in so many ways to mark Holy Week. We would attend services and keep silence. I think my childhood experience of Palm Sunday and of Holy Week has forever impressed me with the importance of this week in our life of faith. On Palm Sunday, we would go as a family to a Maronite Church, Our Lady of Lebanon, the church of my godmother, Rosie, and her brother, Joe, for a formal celebration with multiple processions. I am happy to say that at 92, Joe plans to be in the front pew of our church this weekend. That tradition was always a great start to a wonderful week of faith and family. If you are reading this after Mass today, I thank you for coming and making a great start to a great week in the Church year.

What we commemorate this week explains why we gather every other week of the year. What we remember this week gives us reason to hope, and reason to live the Christian life. What can we do to make this week holy? On Tuesday, the official diocesan celebration of Holy Week begins with the Chrism Mass. At that Mass Cardinal Cupich will bless and consecrate the oils we will use in our various liturgical celebrations, such as Baptism, Confirmation, and Anointing of the Sick, throughout the year. He will also ask the priests present to renew the promises they made at Ordination. I intend to be there, and invite you to come to Holy Name Cathedral too, if your schedule permits. The Chrism Mass begins at 2:30pm.

These next seven days define who we are as Catholic Christians; they give us a purpose, and they promise us that we can live forever. I guarantee you that if you invest your time in truly entering the mysteries unveil, you will not be disappointed. Mark your calendars!

The Passover of the Lord, the Paschal Mystery, is upon us. Will you make this week holy? Please do. And bring your friends! Let's fill the Church this week! With a joyful hope I invite you to revel in the accounts of everything that happens this week. I cannot stress to you enough how important it is for Catholics to truly enter into the events of this week. March 24-31, 2024, has the potential of changing us forever. Let's not just live as if it's just another week. Make this week holy. Let's prepare for an celebrate Easter joy in the heart of the city.

Peace,

PS For Easter, may I suggest that you invite one or two friends to join us as we celebrate? Help to spread the word that all are welcome at Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier. Invite your friends and neighbors to join you to celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord on Easter Sunday morning. The best gift you can give someone is the joy the Easter victory offers. I hope, and expect, we have a full church at each of our very special services.

At the Easter Vigil we will welcome our RCIA participants into the Catholic Church. We invite you to continue reading their stories, and ask that you keep them in your prayers during their final week of preparation.

Octavio Covarubias: Octavio will receive the sacrament of Confirmation.

My name is Octavio Covarubias. I grew up in a strong Catholic family in Mexico; where I was baptized and received my First Communion; however, because of my professional studies and career, even youth, I forgot how vital it is to keep my religious origins and values as a guide in my life. The catholic faith has been my moral support to live in the United States for more than 13 years although inconveniences. It has been nothing easy but having in my mind and heart the significance of the love of God and Virgin Mary with their teachings, I have fought for my dreams and academic and professional objectives with complete dignity and integrity. That is the point, to be here is to get my Confirmation of my faith as the guide for continuing to fight for my purposes with strong catholic values.

Brad Meissen: Brad will receive the sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation.

Hi everyone, I was born and raised in Madison, WI by a Catholic father and Lutheran mother. I was baptized Catholic, and faith in the family has always been important to me. I am passionate about my decision to fully embrace in the Catholic Faith and raise my family with Catholic morals and values. A life rooted in faith is extremely important to me. My wife Lauren and I were married in the Catholic Church in 2013 and currently live in Evanston with our four children, Sarah (8), Anna (6), Jack (4), and James (2). Our children attend St. Athanasius School. I am grateful for the warm welcome to the Catholic Faith!

Carolyn Trompeter: Carolyn will receive the sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation.

I decided to receive my First Communion and Confirmation because... Three generations of my family have been baptized, confirmed, and married in this beautiful church. I was also baptized many many years ago and moved away and came back. I am so honored to be a part of such a beautiful, loving, faithful community.. and be one with our beautiful Lord and Jesus Christ... I'm truly looking forward to meeting you all and being on the path together in faith and pure gratitude from Our Lord.

On Saturday, April 13, and Sunday, April 14, the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, St. Francis Xavier/ St. Joseph Conference will hold a Clothing and Household Items Donation Drive in the St. Joseph Church parking lot, 1747 Lake Avenue, Wilmette. Donation Drive hours are:

Saturday, April 13 from 10 am – 2 pm
 Sunday, April 14 from 1 – 3 pm

Drivers can pull into the lot from Lake Avenue and our volunteers will take the donations and put them into trucks.

Please bring bags or boxes of clothing and household goods such as pots and pans, plates, glasses, silverware and small appliances like toasters and blenders. (Sorry, we will not be able to accept furniture at this event.)

Please help us to help others! Donate to our April 13-14 Donation Drive and consider joining our team to staff our call line, create sack meals for those without enough to eat, and assist people struggling to care for themselves and their families. Contact sfxstvincentdepaul@comcast.net to learn more, including volunteering at the Donation Drive.
