Dear Friends,

Alleluia! Jesus Christ is risen – and today we rejoice and celebrate. I welcome parishioners, visitors and those here today seeking a church home. Whether you are in church, in your cars, or joining us online, please know that you are welcome here. Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier proclaims, as we rejoice in the victory of Jesus Christ, that all are welcome! If you have been away from church, for whatever reason, for a short time or a long one, know that we want this to be your church home. At Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier, great things happen. We live this mission.

We honor the traditions of our parish and welcome all to unite in prayer and the Sacraments. Loved by God and guided by the Holy Spirit, we share the good news of Jesus Christ through joyful worship, faithful formation, and dedicated service.

We can only have and live this mission if and when we allow ourselves to be partakers in the victory of Jesus and his paschal mystery. We must believe and partake in the victory of Jesus.

With all that has happened since last April, it might be tempting to lose hope. So, God gives us Easter to remind us to hope, to trust and to rejoice in Jesus' victory over sin and death. We can all think of obstacles to hope – I need not even mention them here. We can either focus our attention on the obstacles or we can fix our gaze on reasons to hope. Saint Paul says it clearly when he admonishes the Colossians. “Brothers and sisters, if then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth...then you too will appear with him in Glory.”

God in his infinite wisdom, allowed Jesus to suffer and die so that you and I might have the promise of eternal life, eternal bliss, and eternal joy. Today we celebrate that promise and the hope it offers. When we fix our gaze on the promise, when we seek and think of what is above, our attitudes and subsequent actions shift. When we have hope, joy fills our hearts. When joy fills our hearts, it brims over into our loving actions. When loving actions come from us, our world is a better place and great things happen!

So on this Easter Sunday I bid you welcome. I pray that as you come to Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier on this third day of April, you will allow the joyful welcoming spirit and the hope the liturgy of Easter offers to inspire you and instill in your heart a desire to return – wholeheartedly - to an intimate relationship with God and his Church. I pray that the joy that presents itself on this Easter day will consume you and inspire you to carry hope and joy into our troubled world. Our world needs hope. Our world needs joy. Our world needs you to be the bearers of that hope and joy. Our world needs more Easter people, committed to Christ, and living with joy.

Living in Christ demands a change, a different way of living. Passion, compassion and mercy constitute life in Christ. In the Easter Gospels those that first heard the good news of the Resurrection, immediately and urgently conveyed the news to anyone who would listen. Allow their contagious enthusiasm to infect you. As we are invited to live in newness of life, let's do so compassionately, passionately, mercifully and enthusiastically.

On this Easter Day, please join me in welcoming our newly initiated members of the Roman Catholic Church. Mya Allen, Patrick Brown, Ocean and Luka Furlow, Elly Lefort, and Jose Montes de Oca, were baptized, confirmed and received the Eucharist for the first time Saturday at the Vigil. Scott Lehman, Herb Jordan, and Kelly Fitzgerald were received into the Roman Catholic Church, professed their faith, were confirmed and received our Lord in the Eucharist alongside their RCIA friends. And Katie Furlow joined her siblings at the Altar of the Lord and celebrated her Confirmation. Quite a crowd, especially in a pandemic year. We're making disciples!

The participation of our newly initiated members in the life of this great community will make it even richer. I pray that the Holy Spirit, who led them to our door, will continue to direct their lives (and ours!). Let's allow Easter hope to permeate our entire lives, and joyfully wait for the day when we too will appear with him in glory.

Peace,

PS I thank, in a special way, all who have made these Holy Week and Easter liturgies so beautiful - John and Jonathan and their teams, Kieran, Dana, Dani, Anne and Joe, and everyone else who raised their hands to help. Thank you! Also, if you are interested or know anyone who is interested in joining the Church, as so many did last night, please contact Kieran Lyons.

Easter 2021

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Once again this year we celebrate Easter in the midst of a pandemic, in a time of social unrest, and in a period of natural disasters that seem to be consequences of climate change. So, our mood may be somber or even sad. Still, there are reasons for hope and optimism. The vaccines are addressing the pandemic. Our commitment to justice for all people can reshape our life together. And each of us can do our part in making a difference to forestall climate change. But there are even stronger foundations of hope for us as people of faith and followers of Jesus.

In the Resurrection of Jesus, we begin to share in the victory of life over death, grace over sin, and hope over despair. In faith, we know the direction of our future. Although we cannot and ought not to deny our struggles, we move forward through them with a resilient confidence rooted in the power of the Risen Lord Jesus.

At the Easter Vigil during the lighting of the Paschal candle from the new fire, I pray in your name: "May the light of Christ rising in glory dispel the darkness of our hearts and minds." And I will continue to raise that prayer to God for all of us in this holy season. Join me in that same prayer and lift up your petition with a confident and trusting heart.

May God bless, keep, and protect you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

 Archbishop of Chicago
