Happy New Year!

Dear Friends,

The Epiphany of the Lord. The Feast of the Three Kings. Many people of faith throughout the world celebrate this day as much as they celebrate Christmas. Celebrating this day makes sense to me. The three kings, the Magi from the East, represent the universal Church. The Christ Child came for all of us. The wise men give us a good example. The Magi went to see Jesus and they brought him gifts, and they returned to their lives changed by the encounter with Jesus.

We can learn much from those two simple actions of the Magi. As we continue to celebrate the Christmas season (yes, we are still in the Christmas season for another week!) on this feast of the Epiphany of the Lord, maybe we can consider the actions of the Magi. Perhaps you will commit this year to visiting Jesus and sharing with him – and his Church – your gifts.

We can take time to be with the Lord, to go to see him in a sense, in prayer. We must not allow ourselves to become too busy, or too caught up with the quotidian and mundane and deprive ourselves of the opportunity for encounter. The Magi, I'm sure, could have produced all kinds of excuses to not follow the star. They did not deprive themselves of the encounter with the Christ Child. So, commit to taking the time. Encounter the Lord in our midst.

Daily prayer allows us to encounter the Lord. When do you pray? Where? Is your life becoming too crowded with noise and with stuff to allow for that great encounter? I invite you to carve out some time – every day – away from distractions and noises and racing from here to there to quietly and peacefully encounter the Lord in prayer. He will surprise you with his love, mercy, and comfort.

Another suggestion I have, as we enter this new year, involves daily Mass. In the Mass, we encounter the Lord. He comes to us in Word and Sacrament and sends us (as the Magi too were sent) back into the world. I have been devoted to daily Mass since my early childhood. I believe God strengthens us through reception of the Eucharist.

Whenever I work with people who experience difficulty, tragedy, or loss in their lives, I encourage them to do two things: go to Mass more than once a week and share their gifts with the poor. We don't really have to be having trouble, tragedy, or loss to sense the need for God's tender mercy. We all, always, every day, need God's tender mercy. We also all, always, every day, are called to be instruments of that tender mercy that comes to us in so many ways. Think about joining us for Mass during the week. Weekday Masses provide a great start to a day through intimate, brief opportunities to encounter the Lord.

We celebrate Mass Monday – Friday at 6:30 am at Saint Francis Xavier Church and 8:30 am at St. Joseph Church. On Tuesdays, we have Holy Hour with Eucharistic exposition, adoration, and benediction after the 8:30 am Mass. The first Tuesday of the month we have all day adoration. The Saturday morning Mass is at 8:30 am at Saint Joseph and there's reconciliation immediately after Mass. Join us this year! You will find strength and mercy, love, and peace at the beginning of your day – and will have time to get out and continue to do what God has in store for you.

The Magi shared their gifts. They gave what they had. Perhaps they did so because they realized both who Jesus was and from whom all their gifts came. When we realize who Jesus is in our lives, and when we consider the giver of all good gifts, then we will be driven to give gifts of ourselves in return. The Christ Child invites and encourages us to share what we have. The Magi did not hold back. They gave. So, in the same way, we must give.

Please think of ways you can share what you have this year. The Pope often encourages us to practice the works of mercy, and to be especially mindful of the poor. How will you let go of attachments and give what you have?

Speaking of giving... I take this opportunity to thank those who worked so hard to make our Christmas celebrations beautiful, joyful, and welcoming. I especially thank John, Jonathan, Joe, Dana, and Dani.

Peace,
