Dear Friends,

Saint Paul, in today's second reading, reminds us that we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses to inspire us to rid ourselves of sin. I've been thinking about the cloud of witnesses a lot since our visit to Fatima with the Lourdes Pilgrimage group earlier this month. We arrived Fatima on August 2nd. Because it wasn't the 12th or 13th of the month, the crowds were manageable. We were able to see a lot.

Our tour guide, Karina, brought us into the Basilica of the Most Blessed Trinity, a huge church with seating for thousands. When I entered the basilica, I was moved to see the beautiful space, but really engaged by the gold panels behind the altar. The faces in the artwork looked familiar. The style seemed very comfortable. When Karina told us of the artist, a Slovenian Jesuit, I realized why the work seemed familiar. Father Marko Ivan Rupnik also created the Luminous Mysteries that decorate the exterior of the basilica in Lourdes.

More than the faces and the style, the artwork captured me by the message it was sending. I hope my unprofessional photograph of the piece does it justice. Behind the crucifix is the center of the mosaic, the Lamb of God. I found a great description of the piece on the website Pilgrim-info.com. I share the description below.

At the right and at the left of the throne and of the Lamb, is the Heavenly Jerusalem, in which we see a multitude of Angels and Saints. The Lamb is formed by the gold color and by shades of white, because He is the Light. From Him depart waves of light. The Saints are painted with colored tones, to indicate that they are in the light, receive the light, let themselves be illuminated and penetrated by it, welcome the gift of divine life.

To our left and to the right of the Lamb we find the Mother of God joined by Blessed Francisco and Jacinta and Sister Lucia, rosary in hand. In the first row are six Apostles and three Archangels and, behind them, a multitude of Saints, with emphasis for the Franciscan group: St. Francis of Assisi, St. Clare and St. Pio of Pietrelcina.

To our right we find St. John the Baptist, who points to the Son of God as being the Lamb, plus six Apostles and four Archangels. Behind them, another multitude of Angels and Saints, amongst whom are St. Isabel of Portugal and Blessed Teresa of Calcutta.

The first Archangel to our left is Gabriel at the Annunciation, holding the Word of God; the last one to our right is Michael, the Archangel of the Day of Judgment holding the scale. Mary and John the Baptist, flanking the Lamb.

Behind all these known saints stand the unknown ones, the cloud of witnesses. As I sat there praying with this image, I thought of Queen of All Saints Basilica in Chicago, and its own cloud of saints surrounding their Queen in the mosaic behind the main altar. Throughout Salvation history, in Scripture, tradition, art and music, we experience the joy of the Communion of Saints, the famous ones and our little-known ones. The cloud of witnesses, on fire with the love of God, spurs us on and invites us to be saints too.

On Monday, we will celebrate the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. We recognize that she was assumed, body and soul into Heaven. Her assumption is a reward for being on fire with God's love, for taking a risk, for saying yes without counting the personal cost, for remaining sinless, for being steadfast in love of her son and the Church he entrusted to her care. May Mary's words be ours. "I am the handmaid of the Lord. Let it be done to me according to your word."

With the great cloud of witnesses, let's go together to encounter the Lord and allow the living flame of his love to consume us, so that we can rid ourselves of anything that prevents us from doing his will. The Saints, including our patrons, Joseph and Francis Xavier, will help us.

Peace,

Rev. Wayne T. Davis

August 3, 2022

Reverend Wayne Watts
 Pastor, Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier Parish
 1747 Lake Avenue
 Wilmette, IL 60091

Dear Father Watts,

In accord with canon 553 of the Code of Canon Law, I am pleased to appoint you as Dean of Deanery II A. This responsibility will be fulfilled concurrently as Pastor of Saints Joseph and Francis Xavier Parish. Your term of office which is renewable is effective August 6, 2022 and will conclude on June 30, 2025.

Know that I am grateful for your willingness to serve the Archdiocese and, in particular, the People of God in this deanery through the Office of Dean. As dean, you will be assisting me, the vicar general and your episcopal vicar to better provide for the pastoral governance of this local Church.

The office of dean is described in canons 554 and 555. In general, it is the dean's responsibility to promote and coordinate common pastoral activity within the deanery, to see to it that the priests and deacons in the deanery diligently perform their proper roles and duties, that the parishes in the deanery are being administered properly in accord with liturgical norms and canon law, as well as Archdiocesan policies and procedures, and that parish sacramental records are correctly inscribed and kept in good condition. In addition to these provisions, your role as dean will be more fully explained and discussed in future meetings with the episcopal vicars and other deans.

Father Watts, you have my personal support and prayers for you in this ministry. Wishing you every blessing with kind regards I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

 Archbishop of Chicago
