Dear Friends,

A long time ago, I read a somewhat complex and challenging book by a very bright (maybe too bright) priest who celebrated Mass regularly at Saint Joan of Arc Chapel at Marquette University. I should have guessed the book would be complex and challenging. When he was the homilist at Mass, he would send us back to the dorms with a paper that tried to explain what he said in his homily, because they too were complex and challenging. The book, The Inner Loneliness, by Father Sebastian Moore, asserted that all of us have this emptiness inside that only God can fill.

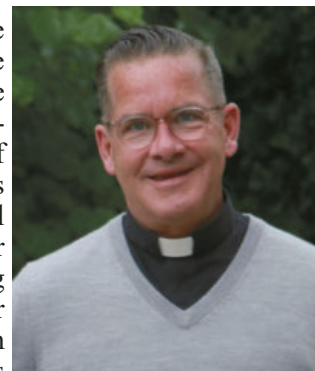

We do spend a lot of time and energy and money trying to fill that void, to quench that thirst, that only God can fill, that only God can quench. God created us with that deep desire for him that we often ignore or deny. We look other places and search them unsuccessfully. Father Moore would echo the psalmist's words, "In you Oh Lord I have found my peace." No matter what we spend or where we look, true peace is found in God, and in his Son who comes to us EACH SUNDAY and every time we celebrate the Eucharist.

God, our "One Father," and his Son Jesus, our "One Master," must occupy the center of our hearts. They fill the inner loneliness and teach us how to love. In their teaching, by the Word of the Father and by the example of the Son, we can learn how to live, for what to live, how to hope and the reasons for our hope. Our readings this weekend remind us to make God number one and to learn from the Son.

The Old Testament Priests failed in their role as leaders. We hear that they turned away from the Lord. They searched other ways to find happiness and peace. They glorified ungodly things. They fought with one another. Malachi called them and us to conversion. He reminded them that God is the source of life and love and joy and light.

Once we find our peace in God, then we then need to open our hearts to the teaching of Jesus. He tells us to not follow the example of the priests and Scribes and Pharisees, but to follow him, the one who is humble of heart. Jesus says, "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled and whoever humbles himself will be exalted." Society and our political leaders might have difficulty with this statement of Jesus, but for true peace, I suggest we follow Jesus. Let's be humble. Let's serve. Then we'll be great!

I am happy to report to you the results of our October count. The archdiocese requires that we count those who attend the weekend Masses during the month of October. The archdiocese uses this information for several reasons, including planning for the future operation and staffing of parishes. In fact, October count numbers played an important role in the decisions and discernment phase of the Renew My Church process. The information we glean is helpful in making local decisions and moving forward. While we have no immediate plans to change our Mass schedule, October count numbers will educate any decision we make. If bulletin space allows, we will publish the file that includes all the Masses during the month. The good news... Our October count numbers averaged 1320 people in Mass each weekend. That number indicates a 24% increase over last year's October count number. That's simply amazing!

I give much credit to you for voicing your opinion and letting us know what Sunday mornings look like in the life of families. You told us that Sunday mornings were very busy with sports and other activities. You asked for an afternoon or evening Mass on Sunday. The addition of the 4:45 PM Mass on Sunday, with a focus on families, has made the difference. The ACTION Mass also has shown a significant increase in attendance. I credit Father Ryan, Noreen, Corinne, and the amazing teen leaders for spreading the word and evangelizing among the young people. ACTION has shown a nearly 50% increase in Mass attendance this year. God is good, and the Holy Spirit is directing this parish in wonderful ways.

Peace,

PS Adding a dose of reality... while Mass attendance rose significantly, our Sunday collections did not. You will see a lot of good news in our annual report. The sobering news is that our Sunday collections did not meet our budgeted goal for fiscal 2023, which ended on June 30th. Please consider increasing your offering and consider electronic giving at pushpay.com.

Our Parish Annual Report for the 2023 fiscal year has been completed. If you did not receive a copy via our parish email blast, hard copies can be found in back of both churches. If you'd like an electronic copy sent to you, please contact the parish office at officessjfx@ssjfx.org. Thank you.

From the Loft

Since our choir season resumed in September, we have had numerous requests from the congregation asking to hear more of the choir. So, this week at St. Joseph Church, the choir will begin five minutes prior to Mass with a joyful prelude, "This Little Light of Mine". They will also sing a communion meditation, a beautiful arrangement of "I Will Sing With the Spirit". We look forward to being able to sing twice this week.

Next week the choir sings at 9:30am at St. Francis Xavier, n returns to St. Joseph on November 19 at 10:30am. We thank the congregation for their enthusiastic support.

St. Vincent de Paul: A Lifeline of Support

A Wilmette woman struggling with a fractured spine, trying to survive on disability income of $1,000 a month. Her electricity had been shut off due to lack of payment, so she was unable to do laundry and was living by flashlight. St. Vincent de Paul paid her overdue electric bill and got her lights turned back on. We also collaborated with other agencies who will support her going forward.*

A Winnetka middle school student whose immigrant family was unable to provide her with the cost of a lunch on a school field trip. On a previous field trip, she was embarrassed to ask for help and had to skip lunch. St. Vincent de Paul provided her with gift cards so could eat lunch with her fellow students.*

A disabled Glenview woman in her 50's who suffers from PTSD, anxiety, and depression. Her Medicaid benefits had been terminated without her knowing it, and she faced mounting bills for her therapy and medications. Forced to decide whether to buy food or pay her medical bills or rent, she feared homelessness. St. Vincent de Paul visited her home, paid one month of rent, utilities, and her psychiatrist's bill, and gave her Jewel gift cards.*

Please help. These folks are among the many New Trier Township residents we've assisted this past year. Father Wayne has graciously designated this year's parish Thanksgiving collection for the benefit of our Society of St. Vincent de Paul, St. Francis Xavier/St. Joseph Conference. You can support our work needed more than ever by contributing via the QR code below.

Assisting individuals and families in financial or personal crisis is the Society of St. Vincent de Paul's number one mission. Our goal is to assist clients so that they may get "back on their own feet". Your support, through the Thanksgiving collection, enables us to provide a lifeline to families and individuals. Your generous contribution means so much to us and the people we serve.

A FAMILY OF Faith

Last Sunday, the Saints JFX Family of Faith program held its first community gathering following the 4:45 pm Mass. Families enjoyed fellowship and a meal prepared by the Men's Club, then spent time learning about the Saints through a game of All Saints bingo. Family of Faith parents will gather again on November 14 for our next parent session at the SFX campus school gym
